amidst global challenges. At the time of his appointment at DTI, he was serving as the President of the Management Association of the Philippines (MAP). An ardent advocate of good corporate governance, he was also the Lead Independent Director of SM Investments Corporation (since 2017) and an independent director on the boards of other publicly listed companies like Megawide Construction and Concepcion Industrial. His governance advocacy extended to nonprofit organizations, including as President and CEO of the Institute of Corporate Directors (ICD) and as a Board Trustee of the Institute for Solidarity in Asia. From 2011 to 2017, he served as the 20th President of the University of the Philippines (UP) System and Co-Chair of its Board of Regents, where he led the country's premier university through a period of significant transformation. Before UP, Mr. Pascual worked at the Asian Development Bank for 19 years in several positions, including Director for Private Sector Operations, Director for Infrastructure Finance, and Advisor for Public-Private Partnership (Infrastructure Development).

His visionary leadership in higher education earned him widespread recognition, including honorary doctorates from UP and four other universities. He also received the Presidential Lingkod Bayan Award from Malacañang and the Rotary Golden Wheel Award for Higher Education.

He earned his Master of Business Administration and Bachelor of Science Degree in Chemistry (cum laude) from UP.
