OTHER DISCLOSURES

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

The stock market fared poorly in January with the PSEI ending the month at 5,862.59, down 10.2% m/m. The uncertainty on Trump's tariffs have pushed investors to the sideline. The market was on risk-off mode amid concerns of fewer rate cuts by the Fed in 2025. The month saw the release of December inflation of 2.9% from 2.5% in November of last year and the 4Q24 GDP print of 5.2%. Both macro data showed unimpressive results and that added to the dismal performance of the equities market. What made it worse was the PSEi rebalancing which took place on the last trading day of January where the Index fell by 4.0%. The regular rebalancing of the PSEi happens twice a year in February and August. The month end also saw exaggerated buying on the new members of the PSEi namely China Bank (CBC) and Ayala REIT (AREIT) while a big sell off was seen in Wilcon (WLCON) and Nickel Asia (NIKL) as these two stocks were taken out of the constituents.

INVESTMENT POLICY / PROSPECTIVE INVESTMENTS

The Fund may invest in exchange-listed equities and fixed income securities, deposits in the Trustee's bank or in other banks, securities issued or guaranteed by the Philippine Government or the BSP and tradable securities issued by any supranational entity. Subject to BSP guidelines and the Trustee's Trust Committee approval, the Fund may also avail of financial derivative instruments solely for the purpose of hedging risk exposures, as well as invest in other tradable investment outlets/categories as may be deemed suitable for the Fund.

The objective of the Fund is to achieve income and long-term capital appreciation by investing in a diversified portfolio of stocks with sustainable dividend yields listed in the Philippine Stock Exchange.
Benchmark*	Philippine Stock Exchange Composite Index (PSEi)	PSE Dividend Yield Index (PSE DivY)

A benchmark is a measure that is used to compare the performance of the UITF. A change in benchmark poses no effect on the market value of your investments in the Fund.*

The updated investment objective and benchmark emphasize the Fund's investment objective and strategy of investing in stocks with a history of high dividend payouts. Such dividends are reinvested to the Fund to maximize long-term returns. The benchmark index was launched by the Philippine Stock Exchange (PSE) in March 2022 and is composed of 20 companies selected based on liquidity and three-year average dividend yield performance.

We advise you to evaluate these changes carefully. If the Fund remains suitable to your investment profile, there is no need for you to do anything. Your decision to remain invested in the Fund will be deemed as your conformity with the amendment. If this is not the case or you are not in conformity with the above amendments, you may get in touch with your UITF Servicing Branch on or before December 27, 2024 to discuss other BDO UITFs/investment products that may better match your requirements. Early redemption fees and/or non-completion fees shall be waived if redemption orders are made prior to the effectivity date.
