OTHER DISCLOSURES

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

The stock market closed the month sharply lower as the PSEi plunged 7.41% m/m to end November at 6,613.85. Stock markets across Asia saw heavy selling pressure after a Trump victory. Market sentiment quickly turned negative as investors weigh the impact of the Trump trade policies across Asian markets. The PSEi was among the markets that were heavily sold down with net foreign outflows amounting to $349M in November alone. Trump 2.0 is seen to make the US dollar stronger against Asian currencies as such, the month saw the Peso depreciating to Php59 versus the US dollar. On the flip side, Wall Street posted record highs as U.S. stocks are seen to benefit the most from Trump’s “America first” policies. Meanwhile, the unimpressive data for GDP and CPI further pushed investors to the side line. Inflation in November stood at 2.50% following a slight uptick in non-rice components while 3Q24 GDP slowed to 5.20% versus consensus estimate of 5.70% and 6.40% previously.

INVESTMENT POLICY / PROSPECTIVE INVESTMENTS

The Fund may invest in exchange-listed equities and fixed income securities, deposits in the Trustee’s bank or in other banks, securities issued or guaranteed by the Philippine Government or the BSP and tradable securities issued by any supranational entity. |----------------------|--|--|
| Investment Objective | The objective of the Fund is to achieve long-term capital appreciation by investing in a diversified portfolio of attractively priced stocks with sustainable dividend yields listed in the Philippine Stock Exchange. | The objective of the Fund is to achieve income and long-term capital appreciation by investing in a diversified portfolio of stocks with sustainable dividend yields listed in the Philippine Stock Exchange. |
| Benchmark* | Philippine Stock Exchange Composite Index (PSEi) | PSE Dividend Yield Index (PSE DivY) |

A benchmark is a measure that is used to compare the performance of the UITF. A change in benchmark poses no effect on the market value of your investments in the Fund.*

The updated investment objective and benchmark emphasize the Fund's investment objective and strategy of investing in stocks with a history of high dividend payouts. Such dividends are reinvested to the Fund to maximize long-term returns. The benchmark index was launched by the Philippine Stock Exchange (PSE) in March 2022 and is composed of 20 companies selected based on liquidity and three-year average dividend yield performance.

We advise you to evaluate these changes carefully. If the Fund remains suitable to your investment profile, there is no need for you to do anything. Your decision to remain invested in the Fund will be deemed as your conformity with the amendment. If this is not the case or you are not in conformity with the above amendments, you may get in touch with your UITF Servicing Branch on or before December 27, 2024 to discuss other BDO UITFs/investment products that may better match your requirements. Early redemption fees and/or non-completion fees shall be waived if redemption orders are made prior to the effectivity date.
